

Remote & Expeditionary Medicine

7-10 days

Adventure Doc Education

The provision of health care in remote and austere environments is a unique and emerging medical specialization. This series of modules offers a broad overview of both remote medical skills and concepts. This education will prepare the medical provider to operate in an expeditionary environment with confidence and give appropriate medical care, regardless of location or equipment.

Remote & Expeditionary Medicine 7–10 day

7 day course	Day 1	Pharmacology	6 hours	8 hours
		Clinical Microbiology	2 hour
	Day 2	Field Diagnostic Techniques	4 hours	8 hours
		Tropical Medicine I	4 hours
	Day 3	Tropical Medicine II	4 hours	8 hours
		Tropical Medicine III	4 hours
	Day 4	Tropical Medicine IV	4 hours	8 hours
Fluids and Dehydration		2 hours
Solar Radiation and Insect Bite Prevention		1 hours
Vaccines for Travelers/Adults		1 hours
Day 5	Field Water Disinfection	1 Hour	8 hours
	Environmental Medicine	3 Hours
	Envenomation and Insects	4 Hours
Day 6	Sick Call Clinic &amp; Urgent Care Medicine	8 hours	8 hours
Day 7	Wound Closure	8 hours	8 hours
10 day course	Day 8	Medical Kit Construction	1 hour	8 hours
		Extremity Injuries	3 hours
		Dermatology	2 hours
		Search &amp; Rescue Basic	2 hours
	Day 9	Women's Health	2 hours	8 hours
		The Pregnant Patient	2 hours
		Pediatrics	4 hours
	Day 10	Aeromedical Transportation	1 hour	8 hours
		Diving Medicine	1 hour
		Adult Primary Care	2 hours
Eyes, Nose and Dental		4 hours		